CHRISTOPHER AMBROSE

v.

KAREN AMBROSE

SUPERIOR COURT

BRIDGEPORT J.D.

AT RFTD

FEBRUARY 15, 2022

NOTICE NON-COMPLIANCE

Perjury

The court is notified that the matter cannot proceed to trial as opposing counsel has failed duty of ongoing disclosure explained in Reville v Reville, 312 Conn 428, requiring full, fair, frank disclosure. Plaintiff has filed a perjured financial affidavit, verified by his attorney Nancy Aldrich, Esq. wherein he states he is paying $1,038 a week in spousal support, which he has not paid since September 2021, he further states a weekly income of $571 against expenses of $4,558 a week, for which no source of funds is specified for paying such expenses, he claims no payments from IRA's, while listing a joint account (Bruce Funds) for which the undersigned has no access.

Disclosure of source of funds is required to proceed, lack of disclosure is a fatal flaw in dissolution action. Notice so given.
